

100 Years of Wood Badge

*The First Scoutmasters' Course at Gilwell Park, September 1919
Baden-Powell is seated center in the front row.*

Who should attend Wood Badge?

Wood Badge is intended for all leadership positions, both volunteer and professional, across all of Scouting's programs.

- Cub Scout
- Scouts BSA
- Venturing
- Sea Scouts
- Exploring
- Council and District positions

Requirements: You must be a registered adult Scouter with basic training for your Scouting position. There are no special physical or outdoor abilities required; but, we will be sleeping in tents the second weekend. You must be able to have fun!

Course Format: The focus of Wood Badge is on leadership skills, not outdoor skills. It is a six-day course conducted over two full three-day weekends. The first weekend reflects the unit meeting, while the second weekend uses a camping activity as its delivery model. And did we mention the fun you'll have?

Course Credit: Wood Badge can count towards professional advancement credits. Many employers recognize Wood Badge as important leadership training.

at Lake of the Woods

"It's important you never stop improving."

- Paul Read, Publisher, Spokane
Journal of Business

Wood Badge is a six-day adult leadership training Course spread over two 3-day weekends at Camp McLoughlin. As you'll be living in a summer camp environment, you'll be completely immersed in a fun, interactive Scout-like setting.

It is highly recommended for all registered Scouters, no matter how experienced or inexperienced you may be.

Learn to:

Communicate clearly
Manage conflict with ease
Develop awesome teams
Set goals & reach them!
Be a better leader
and so much more

"In business, we really value leadership development, and when it comes to leadership development, there is nothing like Wood Badge. In fact, we're going to send four people ourselves as a professional development opportunity. We're paying their way; we're giving them the time off to go develop themselves and gain that great experience they can only gain at Wood Badge."

- Wade Larson, Chief Human Resources Officer, Wagstaff Engineering
